

Public Performance Rights & Classroom Use of Media - All TMW Media Group (and divisions of same) programs are sold with limited, non – revenue producing public performance rights to show these programs to any group in a school, public library, prison or military base without further written permission from TMW Media. These programs may be played in a videocassette or DVD player in the same room as the audience or over a closed circuit television system within a single building for viewing by an audience in the same building. These programs may neither be broadcast, duplicated or reproduced for any purpose (including for example making a copy to a hard drive for use on a server) nor digitally or electronically delivered on any network unless written permission is obtained and additional fees are quoted by TMW Media Group. No direct or indirect fees may be charged for showing these programs in a single room or building setting. Digital rights are available for the majority of TMW Media Group programs. If you would like to license additional rights, including digital rights, please contact us. Important: If you have purchased programming from our company via a distributor, catalogue or re-seller, please contact us directly re digital rights.
